MAKE YOUR THANKSGIVING A HAPPY ONE — DRIVE CAREFULLY —

The Thanksgiving holidays should be a joyful occasion. For an unknown number of Mississippi motorists there will not be any rejoicing. Some drivers will begin a trip that ends in death and tragedy. That is, unless they reverse the trend that has been established in years past!

Traffic death is the specter that faced 11 drivers in 1960 and five in 1959. The increased number of vehicles and the increase in average miles travelled per vehicle dictates that some Mississippians will meet fate on the roads of the state during this Thanksgiving season. There is no way to accurately forecast the number but we can give you some of the details of the tragic events.

At least some, perhaps all, of the fatal accidents will include one or more of these factors... Carelessness, failure to heed traffic signs, ignoring traffic control devices or officers, inconsiderateness, non-compliance with traffic laws, speeding, driving and drinking, discourtesy, etc. There are many reasons for fatal accidents but most of them are included in the list above.

When you drive during the Thanksgiving holidays, please take a hint from your Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol and drive carefully. Patrolmen will be on duty throughout the entire holiday weekend to insure that you have the assistance and protection you deserve as motorists on Mississippi's highways.

WE DO NOT AGREE

It has been suggested by the Bay St. Louis Jaycees that Bay St. Louis and Waveland merge into one city under one name.

Before we go any further, let us say that we have been in accord with every project the Jaycees have undertaken, so far, many of which have been successfully executed, but this is one project with which we do not agree.

We don't know just how the people of Waveland feel about this, but it is our opinion that the officials and citizens of this little up-and-coming community have worked too long and too hard to build Waveland to what it is now, and just when there is a chance for it to grow and claim some of the prosperity which is almost certain to come to this area within the next few years, they certainly do not want to let that chance bypass them.

The people of Bay St. Louis and Waveland have always worked hand in hand in every project and in every emergency and there is no reason why they cannot continue to do just that, each in their own right.

Waveland has its own gas system, its own water system, its own officials, churches, etc., and it is almost certain its citizens will not willingly give all this up just to satisfy the ambitions of others.

Its population, according to the latest census is 1065 and growing all the time. So why not let it be as is.

Day of Thanksgiving

SLOWLY, WITH REVERENT FEELING

"The day passed so quickly — there just wasn't time?"

We've said that about many days. Never say it about Thanksgiving.

For it isn't true . . .

All days pass at the same steady pace. We have the same daily portion of time—to spend as we think best.

Take time to be thankful.

And be thankful for
time!

Our souls do not realize their destiny in one hurrying leap.

An hour of thanksgiving. An hour of worship.
An hour of Bible study.

An hour of service for our Church. Thus we grow . . . SLOWLY, WITH REVERENT FEELING.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor
in our life for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a steadfast of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither individual nor civilization can survive. There are four main reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

COMING EVENTS WILL DEMAND ATTENTION OF STATE MOTORISTS

There are two events coming to the end of this year that will demand the attention of every motorist in the state. They are the annual renewal of motor vehicle licenses and the Motor Vehicle Inspection which begins January 1st.

Approximately 117,000 licenses will be renewed on the 31st of December. The largest single group of licenses to be renewed is the group of licenses for the year 1962.

It behooves everyone to get his license renewed early. This will allow him to be mailed his license and with less delay. It will also allow him to renew at any Sheriff's Office, City Clerk's Office or at any Patrol Headquarters in the state.

Motor Vehicle Inspection will begin during the first months of 1962. It is necessary to have your car inspected during this period and the approval sticker displayed on your car's windshield by the first of April. Failure to comply can result in a fine. Inspection stations are set up at convenient points around the state just as they were last year. The fee for inspection is $1.25. You are encouraged to comply early and avoid the last minute rush to have your vehicle inspected.

Report On Bay Toll Bridge

According to a report released by the Mississippi Highway Department, traffic across U. S. 90 toll bridges at Pascagoula and Bay St. Louis remained constant during October after showing a decline the two previous months.

According to the report 180,372 vehicles used the Bay St. Louis bridge during October.

What Is Fallout?

Neither the citizens of Mississippi, nor anyone else, likes to contemplate the possibility of a nuclear attack, but it is a known fact that the Soviet Union possesses a capability to attack this country with at least 50 or more intercontinental ballistic missiles coupled with nuclear weapons. In view of this, for us NOT to be prepared for war is only a refusal to face one of the real facts of our atomic age life. Your state and federal government is rapidly developing an effective capability to meet nuclear attack contingencies. Plans have been developed for the cities of Mississippi to follow, which can mean that almost every person in this State could survive a nuclear attack provided the county and city governments organize for Civil Defense and survival techniques are learned by each of our people.

It is a readily admitted fact that in a nuclear war, blast, heat and initial radiation might kill large number of people close to ground zero or the point of detonation of nuclear weapons. It is expected that prime target areas will be large industrial military complexes in the North, East and other areas. Large centers of population likewise could be target areas. Fortunately, Mississippi will have very few nuclear detonations because of a scarcity of target areas and our largely rural population. However, explosions upwind and throughout the country will produce radioactive fallout in all sections of our State. To survive safely it is imperative that you protect yourself from this dangerous fallout.

When the fireball from a nuclear weapon touches earth's surface, great masses of pulverized debris are sucked upward. These minute particles, mixed with particles from the weapon itself, will be intensely radioactive. They may rise to a height of more than 16 miles above the earth. Eventually wind and gravity will bring snow-like, radiation-bearing debris known as fallout, back to earth.

Where fallout will occur eventually depends on prevailing winds, condition of the weather, intensity of the blast and size of the particles themselves. You might be safe from fallout radiation within a few miles of the site of a direct hit, or you might be killed by it hundreds of miles from the target site. The only guarantee of safety is the protection you have provided for yourself. Keep in mind the fact that small amounts of radiation, absorbed over a period of time, are less harmful than a concentrated exposure at one time.

Wherever you live, Civil Defense agencies will know existing conditions in every part of the State—not only at the time of the initial attack, but throughout the emergency period.

It is important to know how different materials vary in their ability to keep out radiation, because it permit about 99% of it to pass through. Wooden walls in a typical home give about thirty-five percent protection. Brick walls in the average house give about 50% protection. Concrete walls 24 inches thick or dirt walls 36 inches thick gives almost one hundred percent protection from these lethal particles.

Most of the radiation which hits the thick walls of a shelter can't go through. Neither can it go around a corner. For this reason, the entrance to a shelter should have a short corridor with right angle turn. Radiation tends to travel in a straight line, with limited scattering effect. If radioactive fallout is filtered from the air or can't enter an area due to protecting walls, the air you then come in contact with is safe to breathe.

The size of your shelter area will depend upon the number to be housed, but about 10 square feet per person should be adequate. If your shelter is outside, either above or below ground, you will need air-intakes through which filtered air can come. Instruction booklets for building your own shelter are available and easy to understand.

You should contact your local

Civil Defense director or write the State director, 109 New Capitol Building, Jackson, Mississippi for detailed information on fallout shelter construction.

WHAT YOU CAN DO NOW!

1. Know your local Civil Defense director.
2. Discuss the plans for your city and county with him.
3. Prepare a safe home fallout shelter.
4. In lieu of home shelter, plan and develop a community shelter with your neighbors.
5. Stock the shelter properly with adequate supplies, water and food—each selected and stored for safe keeping and emergency use.
6. Know what fallout means and the significance of varying degrees of radioactivity.
7. Know what is safe and not safe to do once critical period of shelter life is over.
8. Familiarize each member of the family with his emergency responsibility.

LINCOLN COUNTY

The tremendous cultural and economic growth of Lincoln county has been colorful and inspiring. On April 7, 1970, at the height of the post Civil War reconstruction period, the Mississippi legislature created the county from portions of Lawrence, Copiah, Amite and Franklin. Today, the county has excellent transportation facilities and oil is a booster of the industrial-agricultural economy.

Booklet On Airport Development Issued By State Chamber Commerce

A booklet entitled "Airport Development for Mississippi Communities" was released recently by a special committee of the Mississippi State Chamber of Commerce.

The publication was prepared and issued by a group headed by Senator W. J. Caraway of Leland, who also serves as executive vice-president of the Mississippi Municipal Association. Serving with him on the committee are Owens Alexander, Dr. Curtis Caine, and James Paulk, of Jackson; John Laws, Columbus; and Dr. W. R. Baulston of Hattiesburg. Francis J. Lundy of Hattiesburg heads the parent committee on community development.

Amplified, the booklet answers most of the questions asked by community leaders in planning and developing airports. It points out that the State Airport Plan as proposed by the Mississippi Aeronautics Commission would place an airport within 20 miles of 90 percent of the population of the state, and no town or community would be over 25 miles from a usable port.

Presently, 42 counties of the state have no public airport facilities, and many of the 44 public airports in the state are considered inadequate by today's standards.

Those desiring a free copy of the booklet are asked to write P. O. Box 1849, Jackson 5.

SATURN TESTING WON'T AFFECT MOONSHINING

A federal official predicts installation of a rocket test site in South Mississippi will have no effect on moonshine whiskey operations in the area.

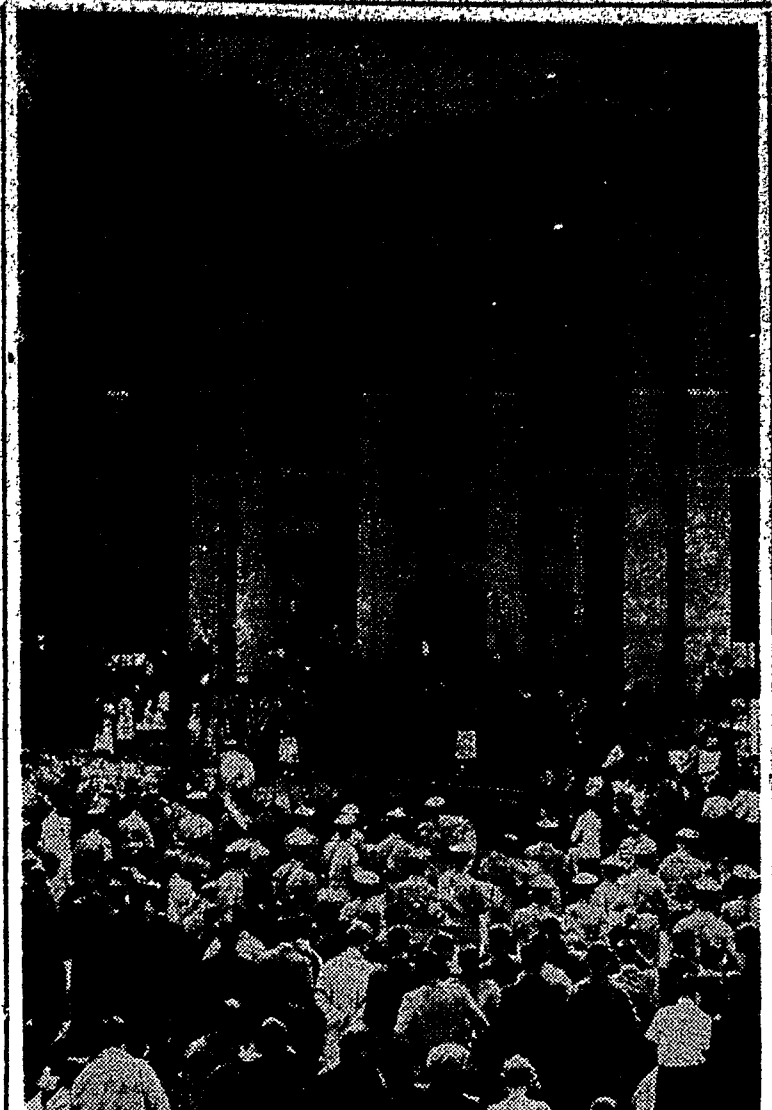

"Don't look for any decrease in moonshining," Roland Cranford, federal alcohol and tobacco tax unit agent at Gulfport, said, "Moonshiners operate anywhere."

Cranford said a still was found in the middle of the Camp Shelby bombing range impact area recently.

Federal agents say Hancock County has been a center of moonshine operations. The 13,500-acre site to test Saturn and Nova rockets will be in Hancock and Pearl River counties, where several hundred moonshiners are believed operating.

STATE PULP-PAPER INDUSTRY

Six primary pulp and paper mills in Mississippi purchase $39,472,000 worth of pulpwood last year, also providing a payroll of $3,325,000 for 6,671 mill and factory workers along with 659 others engaged in forestry. Rapid growth of the national population will mean greatly increased demand for wood products in the future and Mississippi is in a strategic position to cash in on this trend. Moreover, scientific research is finding many new uses for forestry products. In addition to the expanding pulp and paper production, Mississippi has registered great advances all along the forestry front.

Future Homemakers Hostesses For Sub-District Meeting

Biloxi's Future Homemakers of America were hostesses for Block III sub-district C meeting Saturday, November 11, in Biloxi High School auditorium.

The opening ritual was led by Kathleen Murphy, state historian and girls from Bay St. Louis gave the devotion.

Each girl was dressed in white and appeared on the stage with a poster illustrating the points brought out in the devotion.

The devotion, with Ripple Rausch as narrator, was presented by Linda Dunnham, Dottie Estapa, Linda Wimbish, Barbara Newman, Mary Lee Garcia, Yvonne Schwartz and Diane Presnell.

Dr. John F. Nau, chairman of the department of religion and philosophy at Mississippi Southern College, told the group, "American youth's most important value that they must measure up to is the sanctity of God. The family that prays together stays together."

There were 601 FHA's from Bay St. Louis, Lucedale, North Central, East Central High, Poyune, Perkington, Van Cleave, St. Martin, Pascagoula, Ocean Springs, Moss Point, Pass Christian and Biloxi Schools attending.

The group agreed that the next meeting of this section of FHA will be held in Poyune. Other FHA's attending from here were Mary Alice Kingston, Kathleen Smith, Jo Ann McCullough, Janet Saucier, Judy Compert, Carol Ann Smith, Dixie Ashman, Lyndall Schindler, Melinda Luke, Sandra Hinson, Janet Strong.

The group was accompanied by Mrs. J. E. Erwin, class sponsor.

CHANGES IN FOOD PATTERNS CAUSED BY WORKING WIVES

STATE COLLEGE, Miss.—Wives working outside the home have brought about many changes in family food habits, according to Dorothy Dickens, Head of the Experiment Station Home Economics Department. A study of 540 urban and rural families in Mississippi shows some of the effects of the wife's employment on the choice and use of food.

Dr. Dickens found the main meal has shifted from noon to evening. Husbands assist more in food preparation. There is less baking and less home production. More meals are being purchased in lunchrooms or cafes. Some implications in these changes, as seen by Dr. Dickens, follow:

"Producers and processors can gain in three ways from changes brought on by more homemakers having gainful work away from home: (1) From increases in urban white population of the state, which group uses a greater variety of purchased foods and more processed foods; (2) From less production for family consumption on the part of rural families in which the wife is gainfully employed; (3) From an increased market for food from institutions such as cafes, restaurants and lunchrooms.

"It would seem important that producers and processors plan and work to provide foods in kind and amounts needed not only for the changing family but also for lunchrooms, restaurants and cafes." Dr. Dickens' report is published in the November issue of Mississippi Farm Research available on request from the Experiment Station at State College.

SANDWICHES

Cook 1/2 cup minced onion in 2 tablespoons butter until tender.
Blend in 1 can of undiluted cream of celery soup with 1/4 cup milk. Add 2 cups diced turkey—
a combination of white and dark meat is especially flavorful. Season to taste with black pepper.
Heat to serving temperature and portion onto hot buttered toast, broiled English muffin halves, hot biscuits or cornbread. Garnish with a colorful cranberry relish.

TURKEY GREEN PEA SALAD
Combine grated onion, curry powder, salt and lemon juice with mayonnaise. Measure equal portions of diced cooked turkey meat, drained canned peas and celery.

These turkey, peas and celery
together gently with mayonnaise until blended. Serve in crisp lettuce cups with bread and butter
sandwiches.

CAKE OF WOOD FLOORS
Wood is a floor's best friend.
Whether your wood floors, new or old, they need the protection of wax.
Wax, on the other hand, is the natural enemy of wood. It can ruin the appearance of a wood floor. It may raise the grain and make it warp and crack.
Properly waxed floors are fine covers in themselves. They stay clean longer since spots can be wiped up easily from the waxed surface.

Kitchen Kitchens

Fishing over the weekend was fairly good despite the heavy rain fall of the last week. Jordan River and Bottom Bayou and Bayou La
Croix were muddy and unfishable.
Small streams and sloughs were clear and some green trout and perch were caught. Malatto Bayou, Bayou Coward, and Cross Bayou were clear but the fish did not strike due to the cold front of the weekend. Red fish, sheepshead and bluegill were caught. Nolan Ladner, Eddie Fayard and others got their share. With colder weather specimens should be at their best up Jordan River when the water clears again. Trolling and with bait should produce some real big ones. Several four-pounders were caught last week.

Doves are becoming more plentiful
and when the second part of the season opens on November 23rd and runs to January 6, some good shooting can be expected.
The daily bag limit is 12 with possession limit of 24. Shooting hours are from noon to sunset.

With the duck and geese season
open in Louisiana some good hunting has been reported. A non-state license is required by Mississippians.

Bernard Farrelly reported catching some large channel mullet at Grand Isle.

Sonny Wolfe and Gerald Gex
made a fishing trip up Jordan River. Didn't do so good said Gerald.

Celester Ladner, said he has been rather busy but expects to get to go fishing shortly. Celester is from down Long Beach way.

Myrlin Necaise, operator of a fish camp on Bayou DeLisle has a number of good skiffs for rent.
Bayou De Lisle is in Harrison County and is noted for both fresh and salt water fishing. Myrlin is a swell guy and gives courteous service to his customers. Bait is usually on hand. Trolling for speckles is good in both Bayou DeLisle and Wolfe River.

The annual Flea and Fly classic was played Tuesday night of last week. A good crowd was on hand at Stanislaus Stadium and the little players had the time of their lives. This annual classic was inaugurated by the late Brother Pter and many of our outstanding football players got their start playing on these teams.

Luke Elliott of Baton Rouge and the last enjoyed a fishing trip down Bayou La Croix. He caught Saturday on the "Ladner" and 40 also speckles were caught.

Fish are still good for Thanksgiving Day. Besides the traditional turkey dinner, all kinds of sports will be indulged in.

The free fish fry at Morgan's Bar Saturday night was well attended and no fish went to waste.
Eddie has these fish from often as entertainment for his customers.

Dredging at Bayou LaCroix has been completed. The dredge left Friday and this was good news to fishermen as Bayou LaCroix is a good fishing stream, but has been muddy for quite some time since the dredge has been operating. Bayou LaCroix and its tributaries are excellent fishing rounds, especially for green
trout and perch as well as speckles and red fish.

Plenty of red fish have been caught up Jordan River lately.
Drum, Croakers and sheepshead are biting exceptionally well at the mouth of the River. Dead bait and a little patience is all that is needed to catch these good eating fish.

Better put some fresh shrimp
in your deep freeze now for later fishing when they are gone. Paid 35 cents a pound for frozen shrimp last December and January. Small mullet can be frozen and used later.

Mass exodus of some 40,000 to 50,000 deer hunters to more than 500 camps and areas in Mississippi is underway and the first shot of the 1961 season was fired
Monday, Nov. 20.

Hunting will continue until Nov.
26, except in some areas where a longer season is permitted. The second season will open Dec. 26
and close Jan. 1, except in specific areas where a longer season
is established.

The kill this year is expected to exceed 12,000. Last year, 9,832 were bagged in the state. It is estimated the present deer population is 140,000.

Deer hunting in Mississippi is big business and cuts a big slice from the $90 million a year spent on hunting and fishing in the state.

"Many business fields benefit from the outlay of deer hunters.
Major expenditures are for food,
lodging, equipment, transportation, horses, dogs, membership dues, club assessments, etc." Jack
A. Warren Jr., public relations director of the Mississippi Game
and Fish Commission, said.

Fishing in Mississippi last week was slowed by heavy rains. However, private ponds and lakes are yielding better catches than natural lakes due to better fertilization, harvesting and stocking. Recent reports of exceptional luck
have come from Hinds, Rankin
and Madison Counties.

Applications for free federal fish to stock private and club lakes are being gone over carefully with the lakes being spot-checked for the first time.

KNOW YOUR FISH

IN 1803, DURING OUR WAR WITH
TRIPOLI, THE FRIGATE PHAEDRA
ON BLOCKADE DUTY, RAN
AGROUND. THE SHIP AND CREW WERE CAPTURED BY THE TRIPOLITANS. YOUNG STEPHEN
DECATUR WAS PICKED TO DESTROY HER. USING A CAPTURED
ENEMY KETCH, DECATUR, AND 23
VOLUNTEERS, DASHED AS 7 AM
WADERS, BOARDED PHAEDRA.
IN THE DARK, DISPATCHED THE ENEMY CREW ABOARD AND BLEW
HER SKY-HIGH WITHOUT LOSS OF A SINGLE AMERICAN.

Last year, the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service put out 11,809,802 fish in Mississippi with transportation handled by the Game
and Fish Commission.

The state squirrel season will close Dec. 31. The Magnolia Hunting Club near Pascagoula reported that the season there opened with a bang. More than 50 percent of the 1,400 members turned out the first day with a majority of them getting the limit by 9 a.m.

Illegal deer and rabbit headlight hunting is keeping game wardens on the jump. Many reports have been checked and several arrests made. Hunting deer at night with aid of lights carries a minimum penalty of $150
fine and all equipment illegally used, including cars, can be confiscated. A fine is provided for illegal rabbit hunting.

OLG Parents Club

Our Lady of the Gulf Parents Club met last Thursday night with Dr. M. D. Horne, president, presiding.

The dinner scheduled for December 5 was postponed until after the Christmas holidays.

The Christmas bazaar, under the chairmanship of Mrs. James Ansley, was discussed, and some of the items to be offered for sale were displayed. The bazaar is scheduled for December 9, 16 and 23 at the Parish Hall. Anyone registering at the affair will be eligible for the door prize, a portrait of the winner by Mrs. T. A. Quigley.

It was announced that additional volleyball equipment is needed for the school.

Miss Kay Cabell's First Grade won the room count, and the Parents Jackpot was won by Mrs. Emma Carver. As she was absent it will be added to the pot for the next meeting.

Rev. Kevin Reid closed the meeting with a prayer.

Necaise-Henley Wedding At Our Lady Of The Gulf Church

Miss Diana Henley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Filmore Henley, became the bride Saturday morning of Mr. Louis James Necaise, son of Mrs. Hollis Ladner of White Cypress, and the late Louis Renaldi Necaise in Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church.

Rev. Michael Kelly celebrated the 11 o'clock Nuptial Mass and performed the double ring ceremony before an altar trimmed with vases of white mums. Professor Joseph Hemmersbach, organist accompanied Mrs. Theodore Thomas, Watson Johns and Conrad Mauffray, who sang a number of hymns.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white peacock dress and Alencon lace gown. The tuxedo featured appliques of lace re-embroidered in seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The long sleeves ended in points over the hands. The bride's hair was styled in soft waves on the waistline, ending in a cathedral train.

Her finger tip veil of imported illusion fell from a tiara of seed pearls, and she carried a cascade of white feathered carnations.

Miss Barbara Ann Fayard, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Misses Becky Ann Cospell and Elizabeth Poolson. Cynthia Henley, sister of the bride, served as flower girl.

They wore identical street length dresses of French blue poise de soie fashioned with fitted bodices with round necklines and three-quarter length sleeves. On their heads they wore matching pillboxes trimmed with a veil, matching satin slippers completed their attire. Their bouquets were white and pale blue carnations.

Mr. Robert Henley III, brother of the bride, was best man.

New Film, 'X-15'

With America's fabulous X-15 rocket plane constantly in the world's headlines, the timeliness of the movie follows its study in science and technique for both Frank Sinatra's E.C. Productions, makers of "X-15" and to the general public, which can see it at the late show Saturday at the Legion Theatre, through United Artists Release.

Produced in Panavision and Technicolor, "X-15" was produced with the cooperation of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, the Department of Defense, the Air Force, Navy and North American Aviation, Inc. It is the headline-hot suspense drama of the men and women involved in the project to put the world's first pilot controlled rocket plane into the fringes of outer space at speeds of 4,000 miles per hour! Although designed as entertainment, "X-15" is not fiction where it deals with the scientific and flight drama and the moviegoer will see film never before released, photographed in space during actual tests of the real "X-15."

David McLean, Charles Bronson, James Gregory and Mary Tyler Moore star in "X-15" but consider themselves only supporting players to the film's real star, the sleek, swift, black, bold X-15 itself: America's record breaking space ship!

Report Given On

Recent Spaghetti Supper

Financial reports were given on the recent spaghetti supper and rummage sale sponsored by St. Joseph Parents Club at the Thursday meeting.

Mrs. Frank Trapani, chairman, reported a total of $763.42 was realized from the affair and Mrs. Elaine Davis and Mrs. M. G. Seuzeneau, co-chairmen of the rummage sale, reported total proceeds of $134.50. Mrs. Andy Becky, president, announced that the annual co-operative night meeting scheduled for November had been postponed until after the carnival season. A definite date will be announced later.

Sister Eugenie, principal, thanked all who helped with the spaghetti supper and rummage sale. Sister Alise, religion and French teacher, who is in charge of the library, told of the library club and of the part played by students in library work.

Anita Giani, one of Sister Alise's French students, gave a demonstration on how much she had learned in nine weeks by giving a typical Monday morning conversation among girls, in that language.

The room count was won by Mrs. Janice Bankston's 7-A class, and Mrs. Edward Necaise won the entrance prize.

Hostesses for the social hour were Mesdames Necaise, Phillip Scaffide, Gene Monti and Ivan Bradford.

Thanksgiving Mass

Masses at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church Thanksgiving Day will be at 6:30 a.m. and 10:25 a.m. and at St. Rose De Lima Catholic Church at 6:30 a.m. and 8 a.m.

John Rutherford Jr., A. E. Alexander, Lucien Kidd and Mel Villere left Saturday for a deer hunt at Leesville, Miss. While there, they will be guests of J. W. Green, a former Bay St. Louis resident.

ROMANTIC SETTING FOR YOUNG LOVE: Elvis Presley screens Joan Blackman, with lush and lovely Honolulu, lending beautiful assistance, in "Blue Hawaii," the Hal Wallis musical romance now showing at the Legion Theatre. Fourteen great tunes spark the Paramount picture, which co-stars Angela Lansbury and Nancy Walters.

Caught up in the poignance and passion of a girl's love and the sea's lure, Leslie Caron and Horst Buchholz star as the young lovers in Joshua Logan's production of "Fanny" for Warner Bros. The Technicolor, presentation, also starring Maurice Chevalier and Charles Boyer, open Sunday at the Star Theatre.

Blue Jeans Garden

Club Meeting Held

A meeting of the Blue Jeans Garden Club was held Monday at the home of Mrs. Ray Cope with Mrs. Frank Simmons, president, opening the meeting with a devotional.

During the brief business session plans were made for a Christmas party at noon Wednesday, November 24, at Broadview Restaurant.

Plants were judged and awards went to Mrs. Simmons in the horticulture class; Mrs. Ola Moran, dried; Mrs. John Saleeby, cultivated; Mrs. Rheams and Mrs. Cope tied for potted; and Mrs. Rheams won the miniature award.

A social hour followed with refreshments served by the hostess, assisted by Mesdames Rheams, Saleeby, J. C. Goodloe and Harold Furligh.

Members attending were Mesdames W. Flick, Simmons, Burleigh, Moran, Frank McCoy, Eva Gardner, I. Richmond, Rheams, J. P. Rousseau, Saleeby and Goodloe.

Gainesville HD

Club Meets

Gainesville Home Demonstration club met Monday at the home of Mrs. Salvatore Geraci.

Mrs. Marcia Hughes, home agent, gave a demonstration on management of time, and the thought of the month was given as "A Stitch in Time saves Nine".

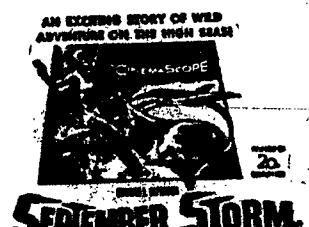

Plans were discussed for a Christmas party. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Roy Baxter Sr.
